Return this form to the Louisiana Seafood Promotion and Marketing Board at laseafood@crt.la.gov. Should you have a question, please contact Jordan Buras at (225) 342-0627. Entries are on a first-come basis and you will be notified once approved.

*No institutional chefs (i.e. seafood or food service distributors, caterers, hospitals, culinary school instructors) or large corporate restaurant chefs (10 or more sites). Also, those who have participated in the cook-off any of the past three years (2015, 2016 or 2017) as a lead chef will not be eligible to participate. Country club or resort club chefs and chefs that are part of a hotel's restaurant are allowed to enter.

If your state hosts its own Seafood Cook-Off to determine your state's chef, please write "Cook-Off" in the Chef's name line above to reserve your spot. If your state does plan to have its own cook-off, the competition must follow the same criteria as the Great American Seafood Cook-off.

In past years, some Governors have sent their Executive Chef from the Governor's office, or selected a favorite chef from one on their state's finest restaurants. Some states hold their own Seafood Cook-Off to select their chef, others send a celebrity chef ... it is up to each state to determine how to pick the chef to compete for the honor of being crowned.

King or Queen of American Seafood!
